Dear family:

With thanks to all of you who supplied me with the data needed, enclosed is the 1996 update of our family geneology.

The project grows and grows, just as our family grows and grows! I wonder if Papa and Mama really had any idea what they were initiating when they began their family of twelve sons and daughters, way back in 1905!

The Carey & Hattie Iler descendents cover a span of 91 years and "still going" (as the Everready Battery Bunny commercial says!). To date, Papa and Mama's score is: 12 children; 30 grandchildren; 90 great grandchildren, 93 great-great grandchildren, in addition to 102 spouses of descendents....a total of 327. A growth of 39 since the 1993 geneology update.

I hope you enjoy browsing throught the historical part that I have added this time. It demonstrates the staunch, fearless convictions of our forefathers.

If I have made any errors (and I admit to a few in the 1993 edition, such as when I put the birth year of a nephew's sweet wife as 1848, rather than 1948! Sorry, Kathy!), please let me know before you forget, so I can correct it on my computer, and it will be reflected in the next update....probably around the year 1999 or 2000, if I am still around and in my right mind!

Did you know.....there is now a street named "Iler"? John and Kathy Iler had their street named "Iler Road", in Sherman, Illinois. I wonder if that is the first one in the United States. (I know there's one in Iler Settlement in Harrow, Essex County, Ontario, Canada, as some of us have seen when we've attended the annual Iler reunion there.).

Incidently, if any of you are interested in attending that Iler Reunion, on the shores of Lake Erie, please contact our cousin, Robert L. Iler, 4003 Benjamin Ave., Apt. #E-2, Royal Oak, Michigan, 48073-1835. It is held annually on the third Sunday of July, at noon. You'll see cousins you never dreamed of, believe me! One cousin, Morgan B. Iler of Omaha, Nebraska, attends, with his computer, on the spot! (Oh, yes, he brings his wife, Grace Iler, too!) He has in his computer over 10,000 Conrad Iler descendents. Morgan is second cousin to my generation of Ilers. I send him a copy each time I update the Carey Iler geneology, so you too, are in that maze of names and data.

One more tid-bit... Did you know that our ancestor Conrad Iler (who immigrated to the United States from Germany) is listed on the bronze immigrant wall that borders Ellis Island in New York Harbor? Dwight and I were there a few years ago and saw it. Our cousin Robert Iler is responsible for this.

Enough rambling..... enjoy!

With lots of love to each of you,

your cousin, (Flo) Ellen Hayes

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EILER, EILAR, EYLER, ILER, OYLER FAMILIES
(Excerpts taken from book written by John S. Eilar, D.D.S., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in his Genealogy History written in 1973)

"In writing this history I have endeavored not to make it a compilation of statistical data of the family but rather give interesting facts of the members, wherever possible...

Perhaps one of the most rewarding result, other than finding ancestors and members of the family, was the gaining of historical knowledge. To understand the immigration to this country, the background and history was studied of the part of Germany in which the family originated and lived. Historical facts and conditions existing in this country which were responsible for the migrations was also a study.

One writer remarks that "...the early German settlers had itchy feet" and wanted to migrate. This seems to be true of our ancestors as well as many others. Being primarily farmers and lovers of the soil, wanting to find a home where they could provide for their families and worship as they believed, they pushed forward into the back woods whenever new land was opened for settlement. In many cases they moved into the new country before the land was opened.

In following the new frontiers as this country moved westward we find the German farmer in the forward line. From Philadelphia to the land beyond the Susquahanna and western Maryland, Ontario, Canada, into Illinois, Nebraska and Kansas our families pushed forward, clearing land for cultivation, establishing settlements and building churches and schools.

Truly we are descendants of pious, family devoted, pioneering ancestors.

The family in the first four generations, in this country, were primarily farmers and tradesman. Since that time it seems most have left the good earth endeavors and are now found in the professions, the clergy, scientists, teachers, business administrators, as well as various other occupations and business endeavors.

THE FAMILY NAME

The various ways the family name has been spelled, especially in the early years in America, has made the search for our line very difficult. Not only the spelling of the family name has caused much confusion, but given names handed down through two, three and four generations, combined with the change of family name spelling has made it difficult to separate the different branches and families.

Variants of the name found in the records of our family and in this history are: Eiler; Eilar; Euler; Eyler; Ilar; Iler; Iller; Oiler; Oiller; Ouler; Oyler; Oylar; Oilar.

Our family name is of German origin. In the early years of searching for information of the family, I was of the opinion that the original name was EULER but pronounced OILER or OYLER. I did find one family spelling the name EULER but pronounced ULER.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EILER, EILAR, EYLER, ILER, OYLER FAMILIES
(Excerpts taken from book written by John S. Eilar, D.D.S., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in his Genealogy History written in 1973)

Corresponding with Professor H.V. Euler, a professor in the University of Stockholm, Sweden, I was referred to his son, Sten von Euler, Consul for Sweden in Chicago, Illinois. He states in his letter, "The first known member of my family settled down in Basel, Switzerland in 1594, coming from Lindau in Bavaria, however, one branch had spread to Germany."

The name EULER is one indicating a profession: in elderly German it means "potter". It is, therefore, not astonishing that there are many families with that name. The sphere where the name was originally used embraced, to my knowledge, mainly southern Germany and adjacent territories- The Palatinates; Hessen; Switzerland, etc. It has been suggested that Hessen was the very center where the name was taken up to use, but firm evidence thereof is of course hard to bring.

It is evident that when the family first took the name, it was from their occupation and the name was EULER. However, as our branch migrated down the Rhine River farther into Germany they took the name of EILER. In the German language there is a verb "eilen"-- to hasten. The noun is "eile" --speed, or haste. Perhaps one of the Euler pottery makers developed some speed with his work and became an EILER, one who hurries, a hustler.

Perhaps the two greatest controversies within the family was religion and the spelling of the family name. The family has remained Protestant in all the branches. Perhaps the most predominant denominations are the Brethren and Lutheran.

The spelling of the family name has been brought about by our people trying to Americanize the name and yet give the sounding of the original German name. This in some instances has been done on the advise of school teachers. Those effected who felt the name had the sound of "I", descended into Eiler, Eilar, Eyler and Iler. Those who felt the name should have the "Oi or Oy sound of the German spelling EULER descended into the OYLER family.

One of my earlier trips to Pennsylvania, and the area in which the family first settled, I was accompanied by Mr. William Oyler of Arendtsville in search for the Valentine Eyler farm which was inherited by his son Jacob. When we reached the area in which Mr. Oyler thought the farm was located I inquired of an elderly German descent farmer for the old Jacob Eyler farm. Pointing to a house and barn a short distance down the road he said, "dat is de ol Jacob Oyler farm." I replied, "It is the old Jacob Eiler farm we are looking for." His reply, "Yah, dats de ol Jacob Eiler farm." I learned then that the early German people of that community used the Oi, Oy, Ei and Ey interchangeably when speaking of the same person.

In the Samuel Eiler family, son of Valentine and Susanna Culp (also KULP) the two older sons retained the spelling of EILER. The three younger sons changed the spelling of EILAR. I was told that this change caused some strained relations in the family at that time.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EILER, EILAR, EYLER, ILER, OYLER FAMILIES
(Excerpts taken from book written by John S. Eilar, D.D.S., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in his Genealogy History written in 1973)

WHY WE CAME TO AMERICA

To understand why our family as well and thousands of other German families came to America one has only to read the history of Europe, especially of Germany in the century preceeding our immigration. To us living in the twentieth century it is almost unbelievable and inconceivable that such conditions could exist. Yet history has recorded this era and even the recordings which tend to be lenient make one shudder and rejoice to know that we come from an ancestry of pious and noble peasant farmers.

During the thirty year war, 1618 to 1648, when dishonesty, intrigue, and persecution were practiced by the ruling Hierarchy and statesmen, a generation lived and was born. The Rhine river valley of Germany became the center of warfare and the pious people of this area suffered the horrors and persecution of State and Church conflicts.

When the thirty year war closed with the Treaty of Westphalia, or Munster, Germany; so far as the peasant farmer was concerned in religion and a betterment of life in the Rhine valley was little improved. One historian says the war accomplished nothing. "With the wars of Frederick, 1620-1688, and the French Wars, the Rhine valley was devastated, farm land laid to waste, the peoples crops and livestock confiscated, religious persecution, both by state and church made life for the peasant farmer unbearable. Yet living under these conditions they proved themselves untouchable in their convictions and many lived to see a brighter day in their new home, America".

It is quite understandable why these people who had disavowed the Catholic Church, had suffered through a century of war, would set up the principles of a church of protestant faith and become a war-hating people and inculcate in their principles the non-bearing of arms. In fact, they became so incensed against force that infant baptism was not to be tolerated, but rather, anyone becoming a member did so of his, or her, own free will.

With the close of these wars the people of the Rhine Valley began interpreting the Bible as they understood it.

From this all sorts of religious organization began to appear. Many leaders sprang up, groups gathered and discussed the Bible and their interpretations were inculcated in the principles of their church. In fact, during the later part of the 17th century and the first half of the 18th century protestant factions persecuted other protestant factions when it was within their power to do so. Living first under a Catholic Ruler, then protestant, then one tolerant to all, the spiritual and human life of these people was in great confusion. Through all of this the true convictions of a sturdy people was not swerved and they stayed with their convictions to carry them to a new land.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE EILER, EILAR, EYLER, ILER, OYLER FAMILIES

(Excerpts taken from book written by John S. Eilar, D.D.S., of Albuquerque, New Mexico, in his Genealogy History written in 1973)

From this era sprang the Mennonites, the Schwenkfelders, the Pietist, the Mystics, the Taufers (German Baptist), the Lutherans, the Reformed and the Brethren.

It is little wonder that when William Penn, a peace loving English Quaker made a trip up the Rhine in 1672 and again in 1678, preaching brotherly love and forbearance that these people turned to him, and with him, to come to Pennsylvania in America where they could farm a virgin soil and worship according to their dictates."

LINEAGE OF THE ILLER, EYLER, ILER, EILER, EULER, OYLER
FAMILY:

Beginning with JOHAN CONRAT (CONRAD) ILLER-EYLER:

Johan Conrad was born in Maar Hessen, in southern Germany in 1675. His wife Anna Margaret (Gemelcks) was also born in that area, in 1694. Conrad, immigrant and progenator of our family in America was a member of the Brethren Church group who sailed with Alexander Mack, one of the founders of the church, from Rotterdam, Holland, July 7, 1729, on the Ship Allen, sailing by way of Cowles, England and landing in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on September 11, 1729, with his wife and six children. Conrad and his wife died in Manheim Township, York County, Pennsylvania, he in 1751 and Margaret, in 1763.

Their children were: (denotes our ancestral line)*

1. Elizabeth (1711- ?) Husband: Lawrence (Lawrentz) Schnep (or Shupp). Had 2 sons.
2. Catarina (1715- ?) Husband: Jacob Vertreez. Had 3 children: Catherine, Johannes, Jacob

LINEAGE OF THE ILLER, EYLER, ILER, EILER, EULER, OYLER

FAMILY:

Beginning with JOHAN CONRAT (CONRAD) ILLER-EYLER:

CAREY WILLIAM ILER was born January 5, 1868 in Iler Settlement, Grosfield South, Essex County, Ontario, Canada, on the north shores of Lake Erie. Carey was first married to Nellie Maybee, in 1890. His first pastorate as a Baptist Minister was in 1892, in Blenheim, Ontario, Canada. Nellie's health was poor (tuberculosis), and doctors advised moving to a warmer, drier climate. They moved to California in 1898. His first church in California was in Fullerton. As his wife's health deteriorated, he moved to Banning, and took a church there. She died soon after. There were no children from this marriage.

Carey William Iler took a church in Los Angeles, then a church in Whittier, where a Hattie Mae Newell attended. Hattie (called "Mamie" by some of her cousins) graduated from Whittier High School in 1901, and then attended Whittier College. She and Carey were married on November 24, 1904 in Long Beach, California. Their honeymoon was spent on Santa Catalina Island, off the coast of Southern California. The minister who married them, Rev. Petty, and his wife accompanied them.

Papa was a pastor in several churches; South Pasadena, Bishop, Huntington Park, and Gardena before exiting the formal ministry. He then became a carpenter contractor and a lay-minister in the Plymouth Brethren churches, better known as the Gospel Halls in Southern California and in Clovis area. During those years he and Mama had twelve children, listed later. Papa died on April 1, 1952 at the age of 84 years. He is buried in the Pomona Cemetery, Pomona, California.

HATTIE MAE NEWELL was born August 13, 1883, in LaGrange, Illinois. She was one of three children born to her parents, Arthur William Newell and Mary Grow Newell. Grandpa Newell died of tuberculosis when Mama was five years old (1889) and later her mother married Mr. William Eugene Burgess. One child was born to them, Jeannie Burgess. Mama died on April 14, 1964, in Atascadero, California. She is buried in the Atascadero Cemetery.

Children of Arthur William Newell and Mary Grow are:

1. Nellie - Her husband was Frederick Baldwin. They had one child, Eunice. Eunice married Jack McIntosh, and they had 8 children: John, Nellie, Fred, Victoria, Gladstone, Eunice Mary, Sarah Jean, and Arthur Ray. (Oh, the happy memories of visiting and playing with these cousins at their home in Huntington Beach and being able to "go to the beach" and swim and play! Mama and Cousin Eunice were very close friends, even though Mama was Cousin Eunice's aunt. Mama was only about 13 years of age when she became an aunt to her one and only niece, Eunice.)
2. Samuel Arthur- His wife's name was Hattie, and they lived in Winterhaven, Florida. They had 3 sons.
- * 3. HATTIE MAE - Our Mama
4. Jeanne Burgess - She was married to Clarence Coon. They had 4 children: Clarence, Jr., Lillian, Eunice, Rupert

V11. HELEN MYRTLE ILER - Born June 4, 1916....Died June 12, 1918, Gardena, Ca.

(The following was written by John Francis Iler, as he reminisced the day that Helen Myrtle went to Heaven.)

"Helen Myrtle. My little sister who died of osteomyelitis when two years old. I was four at the time.

We were close friends. I would stand in front of her highchair and stretch my mouth and eyes with my fingers and she would laugh and crow delightedly. She would reach out and swat my face, not hard like my grandfather did when I was afraid of the handcar, but affectionately with her pudgy little hand. We played for hours, with me clowning and her laughing. I loved her."

But as often is the case, my love was mixed with hatred, for she had usurped my place on my mother's lap. When I came in from the back yard with my spirit wounded, needing the solace of my mother's lap, she would be there ahead of me, crowing derisively. On those occasions I hated her deeply.

One day there was a pall of gloom inside the house. I came in from the back yard at lunch time. The kitchen was empty. I peeked into the front room. Helen was not there. My mother was not there. Relatives and strangers that I hated were in there, talking in hushed voices.

I returned to the kitchen and cut a thick slice of bread, purposely cutting it crooked. I spooned heaps of jam on it, so that it dripped on the table. I ate it, poured a glass of milk, purposely letting it run over. Then I went outside, purposely leaving the jam and milk on the table where the flies could get to them.

In the yard I carefully put one foot in front of the other, moving across the yard, leaving a straight line of footprints in the thick dust. On the way I purposely stepped on two chicken droppings. I looked around and decided to talk to a chicken. There were big red chickens, big black and white chickens, and one huge chicken with a big chest and a long tail. I never talked to that one. It was fierce and always wanted to fight. I chose a red chicken. It was ruffling its feathers in the dust. As I sat down in front of it, it tilted its head and looked at me with one yellow-rimmed eye. It knew me. I said, "Hey, chicken, how come you dirty in the yard? When I dirty in the yard my grandpa swats me on the head. How come my grandpa don't swat you on the head?"

The chicken tipped its head to one side and then the other, looking at me with one startled eye and then the other. Then it decided to ignore the question. It began rooting its beak among its feathers.

I lay on my back and looked at the green top of the pepper tree swaying in the afternoon breeze. Little white clouds passed by overhead. As I gazed it seemed at times that the little clouds were standing still, and that the pepper tree and I were moving along gently. I stared for a long time.

I climbed through the hole in the fence, following my well-beaten little path down into the gully, then up onto the railroad embankment. I carefully looked both ways. No handcar was coming. I put my ear on the cold rail. Faintly I could hear a freight train many miles away. I listened for a long time, looking up nervously now and then. Handcars had a way of sneaking up on you. Overhead the wires hummed like a harmonica chord.

At sundown I went back into the house. The kitchen was shadowed and empty. I peeked into the front room. The gloom was still there. Relatives and strangers that I hated were still there. A strange man was talking to my father. He took a silver thing from around his neck and put it into a black bag, shaking his head. My father looked very sad. My older brothers and sisters were sitting quietly. They looked scared.

The kitchen was getting dark. I sat on the floor in a dark corner by the sink. I pulled my knees up tightly to my chin and began to cry.

There was a place where the grass was smooth and green. There was a mound with a kind of green blanket on it, and a fancy box with flowers around it. All my family except Helen were sitting on chairs. Relatives and strangers that I hated stood around behind us. Helen was not there. I was mad because they wouldn't let me sit by my mother.

My mother sat across from me. Her back was very straight and she leaned forward slightly. Her thumb and forefinger were stretched across her forehead so that her hand shaded her face. She was crying, not out loud like I always cried, but only with tears. With alarm I looked around for my grandfather. I had a sudden fear that he might go over and swat my mother on the head, like he always swatted me on the head when I cried when I was afraid of the handcar. I located my grandfather, but he was crying too. I was bewildered.

HELEN MYRTLE ILER - June 4, 1916, Gardena, Ca. . . . Died June 12, 1918, Gardena, Ca.

A strange man with a book in his hand began to talk. Looking up into the sky he said words like "green pastures" and "still waters" and "heaven". They were soothing words and I began to feel better.

The next morning I began to pound on my mother's and father's bedroom door. My brothers and sisters jumped on me and dragged me into the kitchen. I began to kick and scream. After a while my sister made me some mush. She made it lumpy but let me put all the sugar on it I wanted. All that day I tried various stratagems to get near my mother, but my brothers and sisters were always on guard. I got a big box and put it under her window, and was climbing onto it when my biggest brother caught me. Tenderly he carried me and the box and put us down gently in the back yard. I ducked, but he didn't even try to swat me. He was acting strangely.

After supper I lay on my stomach on the ground between the Calla Lilies by the front porch. I felt deserted and forsaken. I was thinking of getting on the railroad track and running and running and never coming back. But I might meet a handcar.

Then just after the sun went down a great miracle happened. My mother came out and sat in the rocking chair on the front porch. Like a small tiger I scrambled onto the porch and leaped into her lap. I put my arms around her neck and squeezed and squeezed and buried my face in under her chin. My father opened the screen door, pronouncing my name sternly. My mother shook her head over her shoulder and he closed the door.

I could feel the contentment seeping into my wounded spirit. I didn't even object to her high-collared shirt. I preferred putting my face against her bare, comforting skin, but I could feel her warmth through her shirt and was happy.

In the twilight my mother's face looked gray and sick. I wanted desperately to say something that would take away the sickness.

"Mama, what is heaven?"

"Heaven is where little Helen is now, dear."

"What is heaven like?"

"There is no sickness there, no sorrow, no pain, no tears."

"Will Helen come back?"

"No, dear, she will wait for us there."

My heart leaped with joy. Now my mother's lap was my own private property again. But one thing about heaven had to be cleared up.

"Mama, are there any handcars in heaven?"

My mother laughed and gave me a quick squeeze.

"No, dear, there are no handcars in heaven."

Now in the pale light she was smiling and the sickness was gone and her face was more beautiful than all the waving trees, the sunrises, the sunsets, the high fleecy summer clouds, the harmonica music, the Christmas toys, the freight trains, the flowers, the new crayons, the taste of cherries, the mockingbird songs, the Delaware Punch, the licorice, the laughter of Helen Myrtle. When my mother smiled she was more beautiful than all these put together."

CORRECTIONS AND ADDITIONS TO YOUR "DESCENDANCY LISTING FOR RICHARD ILER (J76 FAMILY)" AS OF SEPT. 15, 1996:

4902, Blake Bradford Stone - born in Mission Viejo, Ca.

#4905, Karyn Lyn Valentine was born in Naples, Italy.

Born to #4908 & 4909 (Lynn Ann Iler & Michael Purington), a daughter, KAITLYN 38081
JEAN PURINGTON, born June 25, 1996, Mission Viejo, Ca.

#4911 & 4912 (Gordon & Phyllis) were married on Dec. 3, 1955 (not March 12th).

#4918 - Robert Gordon Iler, Jr- to be married to: Melissa Reese Webber, born May 38082
24, 1969, in West Simsbury, Conn. They will be married on Sept. 29, 1996, in W.
Simsbury, Connecticut. (See my booklet, under Newell Carey Iler, for Gordon's son Gordon, who is getting married).

#4921 - Name change: from, Jesse Jonathan Larson, to Jesse David Larson. (his mother's father suddenly died...they wanted him to be a namesake, in his memory.)

#4919 & 4920 (Linda & husband) have another son now. Christian Jonathan Larson 38083
was born on July 9, 1995, in Santa Cruz, Ca.

#4927 & ~~4928~~ (Linda & Douglas Sprunt): note spelling of last name....it is not
"Sprint" as I had previously written it), but SPRUNT, I was told. Also, the date of their marriage was May 1, 1981 (not Jan.5, 1981). This also changes the last name of ~~#4929, 4930, 4931, and 4932.~~

#4933 (Wm. Edward Meil, Jr.) was born in Lakewood, Ca., not Long Beach. Also, he was married to Tresa Wycoff in Fullerton, Ca., on June 22, 1991. They were divorced in Sept., 1992. There is no "unknown spouse".

#4935 & 4936 (Laurel & Doran) were married on April 9, 1983, (not on Sept.
4, 1983).

#4940 & 4941 (David & Christine) were married August 8, 1985, not November 13,
1982.

#4945 (Patricia) - Her birthday is August 11, 1967, not August 1, 1967.

#4949 (Robert A. Mitchell, Jr. was recently married to: Cindijo Faith Polk, (B) 38084
Mar.9, 1955, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. They were married May 25, 1996, I'm not sure where.

#4965 (Donald Franklin Rigg,) is correct name, not "Frank" as middle name.

#4964 (Lois Rigg) is Buried in Templeton Cemetery, Templeton, Ca. (not Atascadero)
